COMING UP IN SUNDAY FORUM:

Feminist Theology in a Barbie Age with Dr. Amy Marga Sundays, Jan. 14 & 21 | 10 a.m. in the Garden Room

We are pleased to welcome for two Sundays—Dr. Amy Marga, Professor of Systematic Theology, who has been at Luther Seminary since 2006. Can Christian communities learn anything from “Barbie feminism,” or is it all just pink fluff and fun? In this light-hearted but actually serious two-week conversation, we will explore how today’s feminism may point us all to a theology that celebrates God’s creation, and our bodies, as images of God the Creator. We will question whether today’s feminism can also lead communities of faith to question how masculinity and patriarchy has not just hurt women, but men too. We are all “Kenough” in the eyes of God! Compelling Preaching Survey – You may have heard about the “Compelling Preaching” project that Pastor Chris is part of through Luther Seminary. You are invited to be part the project! Along with a group of folks from across the country and in Canada, you will be helping an even bigger group of folks access compelling preaching. Simply complete a very short, anonymous survey after each Sunday in January. (You are encouraged to participate all four Sundays but are welcome to participate as often as you can.) You can respond by phone or on your computer. (The parameters of this particular survey will not allow paper responses.)

Your responses are about your experience on that day in general, not about the particular preacher. Pastor Peter and Pastor Chris will not know who responded and you cannot hurt them by your honest feedback. (However, if at any time you wish to give us honest feedback about preaching, please do so directly! Or if you are not comfortable with that, please contact our council president Andrew Thelander at athelander@trinitylc.org.)

Thank you for your participation in this important work as we discover how best to form faith, support individuals and congregations, inspire the Body of Christ, and be the love of God in the world! If you have any questions about the project, please contact Pastor Chris at cbellefeuille@trinitylc.org.
