COMING UP IN SUNDAY FAITH FORUM:

James the Just with Dr. Bob Boyd

Sunday, April 7 at 10 am | Garden Room

James the Just, also known as James the Brother of Jesus, was one of the most prominent and widely respected leaders during the early years of Christianity. Why then do we know so little about him? Our session will explore what we know about James and his significance to Christianity today. Read more at: <https://trinitylc.org/learning/adult/adult-ed/>

LET'S GO! EVENT: Progressive Style Appetizers & Desserts

Sunday, April 7 from 4-7 p.m.

Remember progressive dinners? Join us for a simpler version serving appetizers and desserts at two locations. It'll be a great time of community and conversation. Those who sign up to attend will receive details about what to bring and location. Space is limited. RSVP by April 3 to Sandy Wendt at sjwendt46@gmail.com.

COMING UP IN SUNDAY FAITH FORUM:

Trinity's Land Story with Jessica Intermill

Sunday, April 28 at 11:15 am | Garden Room

Trinity's Racial Justice Ministry Team has engaged a consultant to uncover the specific history of the land currently owned by our church in downtown Stillwater and at our drive-in property in Houlton, Wisconsin. Join us for a special presentation by Jessica Intermill, owner of Intermill Land History Consulting to learn more about Trinity's land story. Jessica is an attorney that has fought for tribal nations' treaty rights in court and advised them in governance work for more than a decade. Knowing the history of the land informs our relationships today. Read more at: <https://trinitylc.org/learning/adult/adult-ed/>

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL: Faith on the Waves

Monday, June 17 – Thursday, June 20 | 6:30-8 pm | Ages 4-9

Registration now open! When we face big waves, God meets us with compassion and grace to overcome the seemingly impossible. Everyone is welcome to set sail with us! Read more and register at: <https://trinitystillwatermn.shelbnextchms.com/external/form/5f861981-d59d-4e22-ad5e-3b55c31e45ee>
